Use a credit card instead of a debit card. There are more protections with credit cards, and the money isn't instantly taken from your bank account.
Use one credit card for onsite shopping only and a different one for online shopping. In case of a credit breach or abuse of your online card, you would still have the onsite card. This also gives you an easy way to track your online purchases on one statement.

10 Ways For Teens to Use the Internet Safely and Responsibly

- 1 Think before you post.
- 2 Respect other people online, avoid gossip.
- 3 Ask for permission before you meet online friends in-person.
- 4 Don't feed cyberbullies- block the sender, ignore mean messages, file a report with the website or police.
- 5 Speak up if you see someone getting bullied.
- 6 Clean up your profile, eliminate your page of everything too personal, embarrassing and illegal.
- 7 Use the privacy settings.
- 8 Monitor what others post about you.
- 9 Keep adults in the loop- tell them when you add new sites, new friends or see something suspicious or harmful.
- 10 Use your voice for good- use social media to do something productive for you or for a cause.

THE POLICE DEPARTMENT HAS BEEN WORKING DILIGENTLY ALONG WITH CODE ENFORCEMENT IN AN EFFORT TO CLEAN UP THE STREETS AND PROPERTIES OF ABANDONED VEHICLES.
