Council held their regular Caucus discussion and agenda items. The meeting ended at 7:17pm. There was a break before the Special meeting.

A special advertised meeting commenced at 8:00 pm. The purpose of the meeting is to take action on the following matters:

- Authorize to advertise Ordinance #772 changes the residential R1 zoning use was tabled until further notice
- Appointment of Property Maintenance Appeals Board
- Authorize to advertise the Adoption of Ordinance #773 Non-Uniform pension plan
- Appoint Awilda Burgos a fourth member as an alternate for the EAC
- Juneteenth Festival at HJ Park did not need to be voted on since there was never an application submitted for approval.

Solicitor Mark Much presented the concerns and Ordinances on behalf of Council and there was a discussion in regards to the proposed Juneteenth Festival between Council and residents. Residents were able to give their input on the proposed festival in regards to the scope of the event. Chief Priscopo spoke on the event from a public safety standpoint.

The Recreation board has a ceremony planned for June 18th at Borough Hall in honor of Juneteenth. Council agreed to have those in favor of having a Juneteenth event work together with the Rec board to plan an event of a much smaller scale for the Borough community, those in favor were encouraged to form a committee and they were all invited to the Recreation Board meeting the next evening to discuss planning together.
